

News Release

NORGINE PRESENTATIONS AT DDW 2005

05 May 2005

Norgine is pleased to announce that members of its Research & Development Department and their scientific collaborators will be making a number of presentations at the forthcoming Digestive Diseases Week conference, being held in Chicago from May 14-19.

The presentations are as follows:

“Application of L-erythro methoxamine gel increases anal resting pressure in patients with passive faecal incontinence”

P.J. Nisar, H.-J. Gruss, D. Bush, J. Thompson, N. Barras, J.H. Scholefield
Session Title: Anorectal Motility, Sensation and Disorders.
Session Type: Research Fora.
Session Date: 5/16/2005. Session Time: 2:15PM.
Oral Presentation 2:45PM

“Meta-analysis to assess the influence of two different schedules of intake on the efficacy, acceptability and safety of a new 2 litre PEG+E gut cleansing solution”.

C. Eil, A. Bitoun, K.-J. Goerg, M. Halphen and H.-J. Gruss
Poster: 5/16/2005 - 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM

“Safety and biological tolerability of a new 2-litre gut cleansing solution containing PEG+E in risk groups undergoing colonoscopy”.

C. Eil, H.-J. Gruss for the Hintertuxer Study Group
Clinical Endoscopic Practice
Poster: 5/15/2005 - 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM

“Codeine-induced slow transit in healthy volunteers and its alteration by peripheral opiate agonist”.

H.-J. Gruss, A. Sutton, P. Horton, R. Clauss and N. Barras
Pharmacotherapeutics in Functional GI Disorders
Poster: 5/17/2005 - 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM